

	Fields of Study	General Information	Language(s) of Instruction	Scholarship Information	Eligibility	Deadlines	Contact Information
Academic Institution / Foundation / Programme
 Sciences Po Paris	Master Sciences Po via CIEP (Cycle International d'Etudes Politiques). Master of Political Sciences for international students has 11 concentrations: Communications, Culture and Media Management, Economic Law, European Affairs, Finance and Strategy, Human Resources Management, International Affairs, Journalism, Judicial and Legal Careers, Public Affairs, Urban and Regional Strategies PhD: The Sciences Po Ecole Doctorale (Doctoral School) covers 4 major academic disciplines: political science, sociology, economics and history	Paris, France, MA, PhD	French and English (optional for international students)	Students whose tax residence is not in the EU must pay fees of EUR 5,000 per year. Students in receipt of a bursary awarded on CROUS criteria, from level 0 to level 5, are exempted from tuition fees. Sciences Po scholarships: EUR 11,000 per year (for students admitted via international procedures and/or CIEP) External scholarships: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Scholarship "Philippe Habert", via the Association funded by Mrs Bernadette Chirac http://www.lepontneuf.asso.fr/ (available only for Romania, Moldova and Croatia) Other existing grants, not specifically Sciences Po: http://www.sciences-po.fr/, choose « cycle de Paris, and than « Service des bourses et aide sociale » 	YES - nationals of SEE states	Example for Master 2006/2007: deadlines for the reception of the candidacy files were as following: 10 November 2005 for the first Jury, and 1 March for the second Jury	http://www.sciences-po.fr/ http://ecoledoctorale.sciences-po.fr/

