

Academic Institution / Foundation / Programme
Fields of Study	General Information	Language(s) of Instruction	Scholarship Information	Eligibility	Deadlines	Contact Information
 College of Europe Bruges - Natolin European Economic Studies, EU International Relations and Diplomacy Studies, European Legal Studies, and European Political and Administrative Studies, European Law (LL M) European Advanced Interdisciplinary Studies (comprising the following modules: governance in the enlarged EU, the EU as a World Actor, Single Market, European Legal Framework, Central and Eastern Europe) European Law and Economic Analysis (ELEA) - a specialisation for students of the Legal and economics Studies department	Bruges, Belgium, MA, LL.M Natolin, Warsaw, Poland, MA	English and French (optional)	Tuition fees: for one academic year amount to EUR 16,800 (free of bank transaction costs) and cover tuition (EUR 10,800) and board and lodging in a student residence of the College (EUR 6,000) Scholarships: Most of students (around 87%) are granted scholarships by their governments. Moreover the College cooperates with certain public and private institutions which finance scholarships	YES-Nationals of SEE states	If there is no selection committee in your country, the application form should only be sent to the Admissions Office of the College of Europe before 15 January 2007	http://www.coleurop.be/ Local Selection Committees: http://www.coleurop.be/template.asp?pagename=admisselcom	